HALHIMER'S

Men's Bath Robes,

just 50 in the lot; $4

values; all new $2.98 patterns, special

Men's $1.25 Gray and Mocha Gloves, silk lined; as good as you usually get for $1.50. Special 98c.

Men's $1.25 Flannellette Pajamas; good, neat patterns. Special, 98c.

Men's $1.00 Percale Shirts, full cut and neat patterns. Special....69e

Men's Half-Wool Underwear; will

Holeproof Guaranteed Hosiery for

Phoenix Guaranteed Sifk Hose

also sold here; buy them and end your silk hosiery troubles.

fordshire Is Rented by Czar's

Only Brother.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

to the time of the Norman Conquest. The mansion thus begun by Sir Robert Lyttop, treasurer of the household of Henry VII., was completed by his sucmen, 6 pair warranted to wear 6 months or new ones free.

An Opportunity for Thirty Motorists to SAVE ON THESE Auto GAUNTLETS

Hard-wear Gloves, not alone in name, but in fact-the kinds best suited for motoring and driving-styles for men and womenspecially priced to-day.

Unlined Auto Gauntlets, with | heavy prix seams and spear point backs, in tan only; $2.25 values; to-day's price, $1.50

Heavy Auto Gauntlets, with new cut thumb, two clasps, fast-ening at wrist, and heavy fleece lining. In tan and black; $5 values; to-day's price, $4.00

OTHER GLOVE NEEDS! Light and Heavy Weight Walk-

Heavy Unlined Guantlets, with heavy prix seams and two clasps, strap at wrist and large stiff cuff; $3.00 values; to-day's price, $2.38

Glace Kid Gloves, in white, black and all the newest shades; special at $1.00 $1.50 and $1.50

16-Button Kid Gloves, in ing Gloves; special $1.50 white, black and tan; $3.50

Social and Personal

Phillips-Delaney.

Church Wedding.

after the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Phillips left later for a Northern trip. he bride is a daughter of the late Mr.

Palms, ferns and many lighted candles decorated the Pine Street Bap-tist Church on Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, when Miss Minnie Lee Cosby ding music.

The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her away. She wore a lovely gown of white charmeuse trimmed with lace and pearls, and her tulle veil was caught with sprays of orange blossoms. Her bou-quet was a shower of Bride roses, and her only ornament was a diamond pen-

Grace Lillian Cosby, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore a gown of pale pink charmeuse with insets of lace, and carried a shower bouquet of Maryland roses. L. Abner Hill was his brother's best man.

The bridesmalds were Misses Annie

C. Cosby, sister of the bride; Ethel May Phillpotts, Miriam D. Kelningham and M. Edna Yost. Their bouquets were of pink chrysanthemums. Little Dorothy Hill, who carried the ring in the heart of a lily, wore a lace frock with white ribbons. The ushers in-cluded J. Howard Cosby, John J. Cosby, Jr., Lee O. Miller, Julien H. Hill, Charles E. Marmion and Raymond H.

After an extended Northern honey-moon, Mr. and Mrs. Hill will be at home in Richmond. The bridal party and the immediate families of the bride and groom were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Cosby Monday evening following the rehearsal at the church.

Meetings To-Day.

The Chesterfield Juniors, U. D. C.

will hold their regular monthly meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the parlors of the Bainbridge Street Baptist Church, South Richmond. Parents are also invited and all members are the residence of Mrs. W. T. Allen, 304 South Third Street. Election of delegates for the convention in New Or-leans will be held and arrangements will be completed for the luncheon to

In and Out of Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton F. Mahoney and Mr. and Mrs. Howell R. Weisiger left yesterday to spend a week in New

Mrs. Charles Betts Hardy, of Blackstone; Mrs. Samuel A. Duerson and small son, of Roanoke, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rives B. Hardy, on South

Mrs. Blair Whitlook has returned to given at Chesterfield Courthouse

The Chesterfield Chapter, United

urged to attend.

during the fair.

dant, the gift of the groom.

Two most interesting ceremonies will take place at Berkeley and Greenway, in Charles City County, on Saturday, October 25. On that day the Colonial Dames will unveil the tablets which they have placed to honor the birth-places of William Henry Harrison and John Tyler, Presidents of the United States. The Colonial Dames will go to Berkeley first, where the dial to Harrison will be unveiled. A short address will be made by his great grandson, Mortimer Harrison, of Charles City, and luncheon will be served at 11 o'clock.

And Mrs. Lyon Gardiner Tyler, of the United Greenway ccremony. The date for the unveiling will not be changed again.

At the Country Club.

Tea will be poured at the Country Club of Virginia this afternoon, and there will be the usual hop after dinner. The clubhouse is attractively decorated in great Jars and bowls of pink and white cosmos, and the tables are also arranged with the same flowers.

Dance for Miss Stewart.

Says the Baltimore Sun of vesterday.

and luncheon will be served at .11 o'clock.

Then the Dames will go down to Greenway and unveil the dial to John Tyler, and Judge George L. Christian, of this city, will deliver a short address. It is hoped that as many Dames as possibly can do so will attend these interesting ceremonies. Many motor parties will leave Richmond on that day, starting from this city at 9 o'clock, as the roads are in excellent condition and the trip a very delightful one. Mrs. Herbert Saunders is chairman of the Berkeley unveiling.

The clubhouse was attractively decorated, and a buffet supper was served at 11 o'clock.

"Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and their daughter were their house guests, Miss Frances Slinglum, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fielder C. Slinglum, Miss Clarissa Fleming, of the Plains, Va.; Miss Anne Balch, of Oxford, Md., and General and IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND The Dunlop Mills Richmond Va.

DETROIT GAS RANGES. OLD HICKORY POSTTER

ALBERT STEIN Cor. 5th and Broad Sts.

Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corporation

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY of packing household goods and china for shipment.

MADE FROM GOLD MEDAL FLOUR.

RAISED FROM FLEISHMANN'S YEAST.

SCHOOL SHOPS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS $1.50 to $3.00.
Every Pair Guaranteed.

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit.

Miss Sadio Leigh has returned to Houston, after spending several days here with Mrs. Smith Brockenbrough.

the city, after a visit to Raleigh, N. C., and Norfolk.

Mrs. Edwin Pleasants has gone to Staunton, where she is visiting friends.

Miss Kate Stiff, of Oak Grove, is the uest of relatives in Rirhmond this Miss Lucy Anderson, of this city, is visiting Miss Mabel Powell in New-port News.

Mrs. T. S. Norvell has returned to her home in Covesville, after a visit to Washington and Richmond.

Miss Mary Green Jordan has returned to Houston, after a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Rielley, here. Captain and Mrs. George P. Welsh, who have been in the North for the past several months, have returned to Richmond.

Dr. Oliver C. Brunk, of this city, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brunk, in Harrisonburg.

Miss Rebecca Thornton, who has been the guest of relatives here, has returned to her home in Halifax Coun-

The Rev. and Mrs. Zebulon Farland, of this city, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Hatton, at their home in Ports-Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Puckett have re turned to Newport News, after a visit to friends in this city.

Miss Elizabeth Marston, who has been the guest of Mrs. Walter Allen, on South Third Street, has returned to Mr. and Mrs. James C. Proctor, of Portsmouth, are guests of friends in Mrs. E. L. Overby, of this city, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Compton, in Blackstone.

George Batten has returned to his home in Newport News, after spending the week-end in Drewryville...

now improving.

Frank C. Wheat, who has been at ing places in Hertfordshire, and has the Modern Medical Institute for treat-been in the possession of the Lytton ment, is rapidly improving. Miss Jessie Wolt, of this city, is vis-iting Mrs. F. F. Shores, at her home near Danville. Miss Lillian Carter, of the University of Virginia, who has been visiting Mrs. Thomas Francis Meany, of 1413 Park Avenue, for the past week, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Van Dyke Norman, of Louisville, Ky., are the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Russell Cecil, 912 Park Avenue. Mrs. Norman, who was Miss Mary Cecil, is a niece of Dr. Cecil.

and Mrs. Alexander Delaney, and Mr. Phillips is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips. They will be at home on their return, November 1, at M. and 4 P. M. 2305 Floyd Avenue.

HAMMOND

"Flowers of Guaranteed

Freshness." Tel. Madison 630.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Cosby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Cosby, became the bride of Walter Clinton Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hill, Rev. J. B. Hutson, D. D., pastor of the church, performing the ceremony. Professor H. L. Reese played the wedding music. THE REINACH CO., Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET. MILLINERY-Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

BIRTHDAY RINGS,

BRACELETS.

CAMEO BROOCHES. Smith & Webster 805 East Main.

Our Rug Department is showing a beautiful collection of Daughters of the Confederacy, will American and Oriental Rugs in sizes meet this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at for h=11s, living-rooms and dining-American and Oriental Rugs in sizes

SYDNOR & HUNDLEY

Best Cream Cheese, lb........18c Country Eggs, Jozen28c New Codfish, lb.70

S. Ullman's Son 1820-1822 East Main Street, 506 East Marshall Street.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE Mrs. Joel W. Wall, of Eoydton, and Miss Louise Watkins, of Blackstone, are at the Richmond Hotel for several days. New Method Gas Ranges - AT PETTIT & CO.'S?

cessors, and Queen Elizabeth stayed there on several eccasions, the bedoriginal bed and furniture. permitted to fall into a good deal of disrepair, but was restored and put into its present condition by Elizabeth Lytton, last of the line of the Lyttons. who married General William Butwer. of Dalling and Heydon. She had three sons: William, who inherited his father's property, and who is represent-ed by the Buiwers of Heydon, Norfolkshire; Henry, who married the niece of the first Duke of Wellington, entered the diplomatic service, spent seven years in Washington as British envoy to the United States, and died without issue, as Lord Dalling.

The third son, Edward, was the fa-years having been Lord Strathcona.

And children. The latter woman was a Mile. Krassinska, daughter of a petty noble and land-owner of the Kieff district, who has been divorced in turn by Sergius Mannontoff, a Mosaurus in turn by Sergius Mamonton, a Moscow millionaire, and by Count Cheremetieff, a young fellow officer of the Grand Duke Michael has not been fiance of his prohibition. But he has been relieved of the active command of his regiment; while the administra-tion of his property has been vested in the hands of trustees, chief of whom of his estates, the object of this mea-sure being to prevent him from en-whom it passed, by marriage, to who abhors court life and society, will live in considerable ratirement, the life of a country gentleman, and will only occasionally be seen at court, and then without his wife. He will not be subjected to any ostracism.

The origin of the fortune of the Caramans was the construction by Plans Poul Biguet a clear angineer.

Fine Wooded Property in Hert- soever to his taking up his residence in England. The widowed Empress's decision to

Men's Section,

To-day, Visit the Thalhimer Men's Section

Where the Best Values in Richmond

Await You

KNEBWORTH PARK ON

First Floor

spend from henceforth a portion of NEBWORTH PARK, in Hertfordshire, which has just been rent-ed by the Czar's only brother, near her youngest son, Michael, whom Mrs. W. G. Porter, who has been Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, she is credited with having always very ill at her/home in Tobaccoville, is from the Earl of Lytton, for a term preferred to all her other children. having always rie has never been particularly strong of years, is one of the most interestin health, and as such has been an been in the possession of the Lytton family since the days of Henry VII. Some confusion is liable to result, when Sir Robert Lytton commenced to when Sir Robert Lytton commenced to bigh object of her particular care and solic build the present mansion, on high ground, in a fine wooded park, on the site of a stronghold that dated back.

Michaelovitch, who also makes his Michaelovitch, who also makes his home in England, at Kenwood, Hamp-stead, in the outskirts of London. He, however, took up his residence abroad because he was banished by Czar Alexander III. for marrying, in deflance there on several eccasions, the bed-room which she occupied retaining its berg, now Countess Torby. He was riginal bed and furniture.

At a later date the mansion was also deprived of all his military honors; and foreign courts and governments, well as the Russian embassies abroad, were requested to withhold from him the honors due to a grand duke of the reigning house. These disciplinary measures against him were repealed a few years ago by the present Emperor, largely through the intervention in his behalf of King Ed-ward. This Grand Duke Michael, however, stands on a far less intimate or ily of England, than is the case with the Emperor's brother, Michael Alex-

The third son, Edward, was the famous novelist, and his mother's favorite son. It is he who inherited her estate of Knebworth Park, and who, with the consent of the crown assumed with the consent of the crown assumed by the second and Belgian branch of the ducal with the consent of the crown assumed the consent of the crown assumed the consent of the ducal with the consent of the crown assumed the crown as a crown assumed the crown as a cro with the consent of the crown, assumed and princely house of Caraman-Chimorial bearings of the Lytton family.

For his services as heretary of State

Ward, of Detroit, Mich., daughter and

Ward, of Detroit, Mich., daughter and

Ward, of Detroit, Mich., daughter and I. W. ANTRIM & Co., DISTRIBUTORS

J. B. Mosby & Co.

Mossing services as secretary of State for the colonies, he was raised to the peerage as Lord Lytton. His son, who died as ambassador to France, after having served a term as Viceroy of India, was advanced to the earldom of Lytton, and was celebrated in the world of letters both as a novelist and a poet, under the pen name of "Owen this week. Two sales daily, II A.

Moredith." His eldest son in turn, Victoria a godson of Overn Victoria 1.

Moredith." His eldest son in turn, Victoria 2 godson of Overn Victoria 1.

Moredith." His eldest son in turn, Victoria 2 godson of Overn Victoria 1.

Moredith." His eldest son in turn, Victoria 2 godson of Overn Victoria 2 god of letters both as a novelist and a poet, under the pen name of "Owen Meredith." His eldest son in turn, Victor, a godson of Queen Victoria, is the present earl and owner of KnebRiccardo, an Italian railroad employe, worth Park. Lord Lytton is not rich, and has rented Knebworth Park ever since he by the police from several countries, succeeded to the possession thereof, as an undesirable alien, and the police among his tenants for a number of prohibition of her appearance on the years having been Lord Strathcona.

The grand duke is established at Knebworth with his morganatic wife and children. The latter was a liber recounted over and over again in the press, during the last two de-grand duke, in his regiment of the Chevalier Gardes of the Empress. Grand Duke Michael has not been deprived of any of his honors and dig-nities although he gray great offers. nities although he gave great offense to his brother, the Emperor, by marrying the Countess Cheremetica in deof the large fortune of his mother, al-though he has seen nothing of her since she deserted his father.

Chief among his new possessions is in the hands of trustees, chief of whom is his brother-in-law, the Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovitch, a recent visitor to the United States. These trustees accord to Michael the income trustees accord to Michael the income the grand old Chateau of Chimay, in the province of Hainault, near the French border. It is one of the finest sure being to prevent him from entirely allenating them for the benefit of his wife and family. The Czar has also canceled the ukase issue a number of years ago, according to which Michael was to be associated with the Empress in the regency and with the Empress in the regency and in the guardianship of the Czarovitch, elder inherited his father's property, in the guardianship of the Czarovitch, in the event of the demise of the crown.

Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, who abhors court life and society, will the property and founded the line now represented and headed by the old French Duc de Caraman. The younger son inherited his mother's Castle of Chimay, and for ho is a particular favorite of his aunt. Queen Alexandra, and of his cousin, Princes Victoria, the only unmarried sister of King George, Moreover, King George has always liked him, and offered no objections what-

Minister Colbert were greatly interested in the work, and ennobled Riquet as Baron de Monrepos, his eldest grandas Baron de Monrepos. his eldest grand-sen being advanced to the rank of Count de Caraman, on the opening of the canal, in 1681. A portion of the inher/tance of the young Prince de Chi-may consists of shares in this canal, which owes its existence to his an-Left Aisle cestor, Pierre Paul Riquet. (Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood Company.)

ASHLAND NEWS NOTES

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Ashland, Va. October 17.—The Han-over Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, held its regular meeting on Thursday morning in the home of Mrs. Walter Sydnor. Mrs. R. B. Smith-ey, first vice-president, presided. Mrs. C. G. Blakey, the secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, and Mrs. C. E. Potts read the report of the C. E. Potts read the report of the meeting of the Virginia Division. United Daughters of the Confederacy, which was held in Richmond. Mrs. W. B. Rudd very interestingly told of the social side. It was decided to give a pound party to the Home for Needy Confederate Women on Thanksgiving. The next meeting will be held on the third Thursday in November at Mrs. Sydnor's home.

Mrs. C. E. Hartsook has gone to ydnor's home. Mrs. C. E. Hartsook has gone to loodwill, W. Va., to visit her son and aughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. E.

tsook.
rs. Garrett and baby have conled their visit to Mrs. Josic Wright returned to their home in Essex Nounty.

Mrs. Morgan Shepherd will leave donday for Petersburg to attend the linford-Howard wedding, which takes place on Tuesday.

Benjamin J. Pleasants, a well-known citizen of Ashland, is critically ill at his home.

Benjamin J. Pleasants, a well-known citizen of Ashland, is critically ill at his home.

Mrs. Barrett Sydnor was hostess on Thursday afternoon at an attractive tea in honor of Mrs. Fred Messick, of Auburn, Ala. The guests included the members of the Young Woman's Literary Club and a few of Mrs. Sydnor's friends.

An informal hop was given.

SITE OF STRONGHOLD orary Club and a few of Mrs. Sydnor's friends.

An informal hop was given to-night at the Henry Clay Inn by the young people of town. Music was furnished by an orchestra from Richmond. Among the dancers were Misses Conde Bridges, Dorothy Cullen, Annie Macon Potts, Elese Cardwell, Virginia Potts, Sara Cardwell, Imogene Riddick, Anne Hunter, May Baldwin, Kitty Kent and others; Mesdames Shepherd, Carr, Potts and Hunter, chaperones; Messrs, Sydnor, Midvette, Rice, Jones, Tucker, Blanton, Scott, Cox. George Rice, Brown, Bland, Bane Cardwell, Walton, Estel, Smith and Dr. Booth.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Elizabeth City, N. C., October 17.— Miss Estelle Mae Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clark, and John Howard Kramer were married yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the City Road Methodist Church, which was beautifully decorated in green ferns and white tulle set off with lighted candles.

Miss Mary Gilbert sang Just before the bridal party entered "O, Promise Me," Urner Davis rendered the wedding music, The attendants were Misses Mary Mann, Laura Spivey and Lillian Swain, and the ushers were Will Winslow, of Washington, D. C.; Miles Clark and Ray Kramer, Miss Lillie Mae Stevens was the maid of honor. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

honor.

The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her away. The groom entered with his brother and best man, Frank Kramer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Butfalo, the pastor.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kramer left on the afternoon train for a wedding trip.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., October 17.— Rev. Adam H. Miller, paster of the Church of the Brethren, at Bolar, Highland County, and Miss Minnie B. Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Carpenter, of Big Valley, Highland County, were married recently at the home of the bride. The groom is a native of Rockingham County.

Invitations Issued.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., October 17.
Lester Lewis Richards and Miss Mary Elizabeth Newman, daughter of Mrs.
John Newman, both of Orange County, were married yesterday at the home of the bride, Rev. R. F. Staples, of Orange, performing the ceremony. The couple will make their home at Locust Grove.

Ferneyhough-Stiff.

[Special to The Times-Disputch.] Heathsville, Va., October 17.—Miss Ida Salome Stiff, of Middlesex County, and Charles Joseph Ferneyhough were married to-day in Harmony Grove Bap-tist Church, at Locketts.

Headley-Smith. Miss Nettie Smith, daughter of A. E Smith, of Lodge, and Harry G. Head-ley, of Callao, were married last evenng at the Methodist parsonage at Callao, by Rev. E. F. Hall.

Engagement Announced. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Beane, of Lan-caster County, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to Virgil C. McKenney, a young merchant of Lancaster. Mr. McKenney is a brother of Mrs. Lloyd C. Rowe, of Heathsville.

Allison-Kite.

Allison—Kite.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch,]
Bristol, Va., October 17.—A marriage of Interest to a wide circle of friends was solemnized here on Wednesday evening, when Miss Mary Laftne Kite, the daughter of Mrs. R. W. Kite, became the bride of Henry J. Allison, a son of the Rev. T. G. Allison, of Lakeland, Fla. The wedding was attended by a large number of guests. The flev. M. P. Carico, of Wytheville, was the officiating minister. He was assisted by the Rev. J. A. Baylor, of Bristol, The bride and groom after a trip to the Eastern cities, will make their home at Charlotte, N. C.

Wedding Gifts of Sterling Silver

riety of exclusive and attractive

Schwarzschild Bros.

Richmond's Leading Jewelers, Second and Broad Sts.

COURT OF APPEALS IS NOW PROPOSED

Would Render Final Decision in Heresy Trials in Protestant Episcopal Church.

QUIETUS ON CHANGE OF NAME

Action Is Postponed Until Next General Convention, Which Will Be in 1916.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, October 17 .- A court of appeals in the Protestant Episcopal Church to render final decision in heresy trials was proposed to-day in a resolution presented to the House of Deputies of the general convention by a joint committee appointed three years ago. The discussion of the subject consumed the entire afternoon session, and will be resumed to-mor-

It was pointed out by those favoring the proposition that the only court of review at present is the departmental court. That, however, can only decide issues of fact. The new court would consist of the bishops of the church, and be empowered to decide questions of doctrine, faith and worship.

Judicial Commission

Before the case reaches the bishops, it is proposed to have the appeal con-sidered by a judicial commission of five bishops, five presbyters and five laymen, appointed at each general con-While no name was mentioned, the case of the Rev. Dr. Algernon A. S. Crapsey, of Rochester, who was unfrocked after trial on heresy charges, was recalled as the only one in nearly a decade in the Protestant Episcopal Church

Church.

Had the proposed canon existed at that time he would have been entitled to a review of his case by a body empowered to decide the issue of heresy and plea of mercy by the Court of Daview.

Review. Quietus on Name Change

A quietus was put upon further dis-cussion at this convention of the proposed change of name of the church, by the House of Deputies adopting a by the House of Deputies adopting a resolution presented by Dean Grosvenor, of the Cathedral of St. John The Divine. It postponed action on that subject until the two-thirds vote requirement for prayerbook revisions is disposed of. That will be at the next general convention in 1916.

A special feature in the future observance of Good Friday was approved.

servance of Good Friday was approved by the House of Deputies. It provides for five minutes of silence at 3 o'clock

NUMERAL 5 REPLACES V.

Secretary of Treasury McAdoo Hits Fancy Lettering Another Blow. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, October 17.—Secretary

Washington, October 17.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo hit fancy lettering another knockout blow to-day by ordering that the numeral 5 be used henceforth instead of the V.

It is not decided as yet whether this will mean that the numeral 5 will supplant the time-honored V. on five-dollar bills. There will be no recall of present five-dollar bills that are extant with the V. instead of the numeral on them.

MAY SUSPEND SENTENCE

Mrs. Fitzhugh Pleads Guilty, Relatives Will Take Her in Charge.

Will Take Her in Charge.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, October 17.—Plainly showing the effects of her long imprisonment in the Tombs, Mrs. Catherine Randolph Flizhugh, member of the Fitzhugh family, of Virginia, arrested last March for the alleged theft of a $500 meshbag from Miss Dorothy Fisk, daughter of the banker, was arraigned before Justice Gavegan in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court to-day.

to-day.

Through her atterneys, Louis Speigel and Creed M. Fulton, a Washington atterney, retained by her relatives, she pleaded guilty to two grand larceny indictments. She was remanded to the Tombs until Monday for sentence.

It was reported that sentence would be suspended, and that her relatives would take her to a private sanatorium. Mrs. Fitzhugh stole Miss Fisk's handbag while she was worshipping in St. Bartholomew's Church. Miss Irene Munsey, an actress, identified her as the woman who had stole a gold bracelet from her while she was praying in the Church of the Transfiguration, in West Twenty-ninth Street.

WHAT THE RETURNS FROM OTHER CONTESTS SHOW

the body-waste producing uric acid must be gradually arrested and the blood purified.

Correct diet is essential. Abstain from tea and anything containing alcohol; eat meat only once a day and take SCOTT'S EMULSION after every meal. SCOTT'S EMULSION makes new blood free from the poisonous products which irritate the joints and muscles; its medicinal force relieves the enlarged, stiffened joints; and more, SCOTT'S EMULSION stimulates the forces to expel the poisonous acids by its concentrated nourishing properties. Physicians everywhere prescribe Scott's Emulsion for rheumatism. EVERY DRUGGIST HAS IT.

